

Christina Vu

B.Com. LL.B.

Associate

Christina is a practising lawyer who graduated at the University of New South Wales with a combined degree in Law and Commerce, and was admitted in 2021 in the Supreme Court and High Court of Australia. She has practiced in the areas of general commercial, construction, business, property, family, estates and trusts law with broad expertise in these disciplines and has appeared in the NSW Local, District and Supreme Courts as well as Federal Courts and the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal. She has been involved in contested litigation disputes as well as transactional work. Prior to admission as a lawyer, Christina had worked as a paralegal since 2017 in the areas of conveyancing and property, and family law.

Her approach to client service is an emphasis on clear, direct and positive communication, with a focus on attention to detail and commitment to delivering quality legal advice and representation.

Outside of work, Christina enjoys travelling, nature and beach walks, exploring new places, spending time with her family and friends, listening to music and trying different cuisines. She speaks and can read and write in Vietnamese, with a strong appreciation for her cultural background.
