

Matthew Hudspeth

B.A. LL.B.

Senior Associates

As a solicitor employed in the Litigation & Dispute Resolution Division, Matthew brings extensive experience in litigation to the firm, having mainly practiced in the area since being admitted as a solicitor in 2007.

Matthew has had carriage of matters on behalf of blue-chip investment banks, trustees, insolvency practitioners, corporate entities and individual clients in the Local, District, Supreme and Federal Court. Matthew has also had carriage of a wide range of matters but now focuses on securities enforcement, commercial litigation and professional negligence disputes.

Prior to joining Diamond Conway in 2014, Matthew worked in the litigation department of boutique firm located in the Sydney CBD. Matthew graduated with a Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Arts (History)(with Distinction) from the University of Wollongong.
